The Canvass. A GREAT DAY AT SUFFOLK-SPEECHES OF GEN-ERAL MAHONE, SENATOR WITHERS, PARSON

MASSEY, AND OTHERS. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.] SUPFOLK, September 8.-There was a large crowd here to-day, and specches were made by General Mahone, Senator Withers, Parson Massey, Captain Chamberlayne, John Goode, and others. The Readjusters denounced the McCulloch bill, which they pronounced infamous, and the Conservatives ably defended the bill as a just settlement of the debt ques-

General Mahone has a strong personal following here among his old brigade, but his speech was full of figures, and did not enthuse the crowd. Senator Withers, according to all accounts, made a great speech, and there was general regret that he was limited to an hour. Goode's speech, also, was splendid, and I will give a synopsis of both by letter.

Chamberlayne's effort was first-class. While the Readjusters had the advantage as to terms of discussion, the results showed. a decided victory for the Conservatives, and they are jubilant to-night. The Conservative County Committee reseinded the action of last court and called a convention of those favoring the McCutloch bill to meet September 16th to nominate a candidate for the Legislature pledged to the support of the bill and against any increase of taxation.

Mr. J. Hoge Tyler, the nominee of our speech in support of the Mc Culloch compromise, making a fine impression upon our people and winning a number of votes.

After he got through Captain F. S. Blair, having been put forward by the Mozarters to meet in discussion Captain Phil. McKinney, of Farmville, indulged in one hour's discourse of the usual clap-trap. As he and his friends had never heard McKinney they were little aware of the trap they had gotten themselves into. After getting through with his hour in his usual style, D. S. Pierce, Esq., introduced Captain McKinney, and then the wool began to fly. He spoke in scathing terms of the bastard party composed of Independents, soreheads, office-seekers, Radicals, and negroes, organized at Mozart one death there from yellow-fever. DISCONTENT IN INDIA.

LONDON, September 8.-The worst fears Cabul have been realized. Positive information has been received that Major Cavage nari and his suite have been massacres For this act on the part of the troops may have been to control them. England will exact a terrible reckoning the intense night at all the clubs, the supreme anxiety interest feit hast of the patriot was mingled with the curiosity of the politician. As the details come PUBLICAN GAINS REPORTED FROM ALL vis 375 majority—a gain of 485 over last in from the Indian Government to the Foreign Office the prospects grow hourly more serious. The latest authoritative announcement is to the effect that the attack on the residence of the British agent at Cabul was opened by three regiments of the Afghan army, which were joined later by nine others. Lord Lytton telegraphed Saturday night that he was in receipt of two letters from Yakoob Khan, with dates to September 4th, which left but little doubt but that the worst possible fate had befallen the British Embassy at the Ameer's capital. STONING THE TROOPS.

Yakook Khan writes that the irregular troops began by stoning a small party of British officers on the streets. It seemed only an ordinary attack by a mob at first; but the report that all the British at Cabul were to be killed, spread through the barracks and the city with great rapidity, and before all the members of Major Cavagnari's suite and his body-guard could be collected from the various parts of the city, an immense crowd had assembled around the Embassy building, and the troops, leaving the camps and the barracks, appeared in large bodies upon the scene.

THE ATTACK ON THE EMBASSY. Meanwhile the building had been stoned, and several shots had been fired from the Company have sent an expedition to raise crowd, but without perceptible effect. A heavy volley of musketry was then fired into the crowd from the Embassy building, followed by several successive volleys. The destruction of the British residency and the lives of its inmates were demanded on all troops, regulars and irregulars, had thoroughly surrounded the building and cut off all possible means of retreat.

DEATH OF CAVAGNARI. The force defending the Embassy numbered seventy-nine. They fought with the greatest bravery. It is said that the Amcer's son was fatally injured. A large number of the mutineers were killed. After the buildings of the Embassy were fired the survivors sallied out and defended themselves desperately, but all were killed, including Major Cavagnari. Intense excitement prevails throughout India.

YAKOOB APPEALS TO THE BRITISH. The Ameer despatched a courier with his ast letter to Lord Lytton, in which he states that the loss of life on both sides was considerable, and concludes with the following doleful statement, which the excited condiin the original Afghan idiom: "I, with five attendants, have been besieged all day yesterday. Up to now I have no certain news of the envoy, whether he was killed in his quarters or captured." Unfortunately, we know the fate of the gallant party.

NINE TROOPERS ESCAPE. According to authentic intelligence recelved at Simla at 6 o'clock last evening (Sunday) from Ali Kheyl, some of the natives have come in and reported that they have seen the dead bodies of the British of ficers at Cabul. It is rumored that nine troopers belonging to the escort have escaped. These doubtless belonged to that part of the British followers who did not enter the building, and who fled as soon as possible from the Afghan capital. SHOULD HAVE BEEN FORESEEN.

The Standard's correspondent at Bombay sserts that symptoms of discontent have peen noticed at Cabul for some time. The bearing of the population toward the members of the Embassy has been defiant. PROJECTS FOR RELIEF.

The Viceroy of India also telegraphs on the 6th instant that General Roberts will reach Pelwar from Simla in five days from that date, and will take command of a rapid Ghuznee if necessary. The troops of all arms have been recalled from Pishin and are reoccupying Candahar. Yakoob Khan bas asked for British aid. Badshah Khan, who holds the country beyond Shutargardan Pass, has offered his services to the British.

THE SAD NEWS. Lady Cavagnari has received a telegram from the Viceroy of India, dated Sunday evening, announcing the death of her husband. THE USUAL REPORT.

It is believed at Paris and Vienna that the outbreak is due to Russian intrigue. outbreak is due to Russian intrigue.

The Government apparently does not doubt the tidelity of the Ameer. Badshab Ksha's adhesion to the British cause is valuable as removing what might have been a serious obstacle to the advance from Kieram to Cabul. The fact that the insurgents did not wait until the winter snows had blocked not wait until the winter snows had blocked the passes, or even until the British had the passes, or even until the British had evacuated Candahar, seems to indicate that the rising was wholly unpremeditated. The Koorum column, which will be the first to move on Cabul, is in excellent condition, not baving suffered from cholera. It consists of the Second battalion of the Eighth regiment, the Sixty-seventh regiment, the Seventy-second and Ninety-second High-lands, two mountain- and two field-battle-ries, one battery of horse artillery, three regiments of native infantry, and three cayalry and one regiment of pioneers. The Viceroy of India telegraphs as follows: "Advices from Ali Kbeyi, dated Sat-urday last, say that Badshab Khan saw the pit of the stomach, they furnish the absorbents with corpses of Major Cavagnari and members that marvellous vitalizing and restorative agency, of his staff and escort.
